INJURIES. The Contractor shall maintain in full force and effect the insurance to protect the Parties from:

- Claims under employees' compensation, disability benefits, damages resulting from bodily injury, occupational sickness or disease, or the death of the Contractor's employees;
- Claims for bodily injury or property damage arising during the rendered Services.

INDEMNIFICATION. Each Party agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the other Party, their employees, and representatives against any damage, liability, loss, legal fees, and costs incurred that may relate to this Contract. This clause shall not be interpreted to provide indemnification for any Party if a competent court of law, rendering a final judgment, finds that the bad faith, gross negligence, or willful misconduct of the Party caused the damage, liability, or loss.

NOTICE. Any notice or communication required or permitted under this Contract shall be sufficiently given if delivered personally or sent by registered mail, return receipt requested to the address or email address set forth in the opening paragraph or to such other address as one Party may have furnished to the other in writing.

Either Party may change its registered mail or email address for receipt of notices by giving written notice to the other Party. Notices shall be deemed received on the day of delivery if sent by hand or courier service or on the _____ business day from the date of posting if sent by registered mail or email.

FORCE MAJEURE. Neither Party shall be liable for any failure to perform or delay in performing the obligations under this Contract if such failure or delay is caused by events of force majeure, including but not limited to acts of God, war, terrorism, strikes, lockouts, labor disputes, pandemics, governmental regulations, or any other similar cause beyond the reasonable control of the affected Party.

In the case of force majeure, the affected Party shall immediately notify the other Party in writing and provide reasonable proof of the cause of the delay or inability to perform the obligations. The Party affected by force majeure shall endeavor to mitigate the consequences of such circumstances and resume the performance of obligations as soon as possible after the circumstances cease to exist.

If the force majeure circumstances last more than _____ days, either Party may terminate this Contract by giving written notice to the other Party. In this case, neither Party shall be liable to the other Party for any damages arising from the termination of this Contract.

GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION. This Contract shall be governed by and interpreted under the laws of the State of _____. Any disputes resulting from or relating to this Contract shall be exclusively resolved by the courts of the State of _____.

SEVERABILITY. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Contract shall not affect its validity or enforceability.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Contract constitutes the entire understanding between the Parties and supersedes any prior oral or written agreements.

WAIVER. The failure of any Party to enforce a particular provision of this Contract shall not constitute a waiver of their right to enforce that provision in the future.

AMENDMENTS. This Contract may be amended or modified only by a written agreement signed by both Parties. Any amendments to this Contract shall be binding only if they are documented in writing and signed by both Parties.

BINDING EFFECT. This Contract shall be binding upon the Parties and their respective successors and assigns. Neither Party may assign this Contract or any of its rights or obligations hereunder without obtaining prior written consent from the other Party, which cannot be unreasonably withheld.

ADDITIONAL TERMS: _____
