The Contractor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Client from and against any claims, demands, suits, actions, damages, losses, liabilities, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, that may arise during the Contractor's performance but only to the extent such claims are caused by the Contractor's negligence or willful misconduct.

TERM AND TERMINATION. This Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and unless terminated earlier in accordance with the terms of this Agreement shall continue: (choose one) until the completion of the Services.

until the date of _____.

Either Party may terminate this Agreement by providing _____-day written notice to the other Party.

In addition, if one of the Parties becomes insolvent or files for bankruptcy, the other Party may terminate this Agreement immediately by giving written notice to the other Party.

Upon termination of this Agreement, the Client shall pay the Contractor for all Services rendered up until the date of termination.

NOTICE. Any notice or communication required or permitted under this Agreement shall be sufficiently given if delivered personally or sent by registered mail, return receipt requested to the address or emails set forth in the opening paragraph or to such other address as one Party may have furnished to the other in writing.

Either Party may change its registered mail or email address for receipt of notices by giving written notice to the other Party. Notices shall be deemed received on the day of delivery if sent by hand or courier Service or on the _____ business day from the date of posting if sent by registered mail or email.

CONFIDENTIALITY. The Parties agree to keep all information disclosed during this Agreement confidential and not to share such information with any third party unless required by law. The Parties agree not to use the confidential information for any purpose other than what is necessary to fulfill their obligations under this Agreement. This confidentiality clause shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

In the case of force majeure, the affected Party shall immediately notify the other Party in writing and provide the other Party with reasonable evidence of the delay or inability to perform the obligations. The Party affected by force majeure shall endeavor to mitigate the consequences of such circumstances and resume the performance of obligations as soon as possible after the circumstances cease to exist.

If the force majeure circumstances last more than _____ days, either Party may terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to the other Party. In this case, neither Party shall be liable for any damages arising from the termination of this Agreement.

SEVERABILITY. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

WAIVER. The failure of any Party to enforce a particular provision of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of their right to enforce that provision in the future.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the Parties and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous agreements, understandings, negotiations, or discussions, whether oral or written, relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. Any amendments or modifications to this Agreement must be in writing and signed by both Parties.

BINDING EFFECT. This Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties and their respective successors and assigns. Neither Party may assign this Agreement or any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the other Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.
